BRAND COLOR

Color is a fundamental element of our brand identity, evoking emotion and setting the tone for our visual communication. Our palette is divided into primary, secondary and custom shade, providing flexibility for a vibrant and dynamic visual language.

RGB (Red, Green and Blue), is used for screen, website, LED, social media poster, and any digital materials.

CMYK (Cyan, Magenta, Yellow and Key / Black) is used for printing materials.

This means that no matter which printer you go to, you will always get the same colour. If you’re printing a two-colour job, you want exact or you are using special colours, use Pantone.

Use the Brand Colours

Where possible try and incorporate the use of the brand colours in the shots. Whether its a small detail, something abstract or a piece of clothing, using the brand colours connects it back to the brand.

Authenticity

Avoid too much staging of the scene: the photo should feel authentic. When possible, use ISI GROUP staff and locations for photography. We value our people and our companies, so want to reinforce this as much as possible.

Know Your Output Settings

Always save out with either 72 or 144 DPI for web use. Large format photos will make any webpage load slower. For print make sure all files sizes are no less than 300 DPI and convert images to CMYK.

Avoid Flash

Always use natural lighting where possible. If you do need to use flash photography, try not to overexpose images.
